MEMORANDUM FOR THE RECORD

SUBJECT: Case 32254 - Launaga.

1. [ ] called on 10 July advising that he had just received a call from Launaga, who was in San Francisco. Fred had gone to San Francisco to attend a Latvian Festival of some sort. Fred was broke. He is staying at the YMCA on Turk Street, Phone: Code 415 -- 673-2312.

2. Bill asked if he should advise the [ ] office of Fred's presence. I told Bill to hold off, to send Fred $50, and to await instructions from me.

3. I called [ ] who knew that Fred was in San Francisco. One of Paul's agents had attended the same festival, and had talked to Fred. Paul also told me that there was a recent broadcast emanating from Riga wherein Fred's story is told, including agency involvement, and the mention of a lot of names. Paul said he was getting a translation of the transcript. Paul also advised me to call [ ] and advise him of the new development.

4. I called Sasha and passed on the info. I also told Sasha that I had instructed our [ ] office to send Fred $50.00 and not to alert our [ ] office to Fred's presence in the area. Sasha agreed with this procedure.

5. I called [ ] Security, and passed on the above. Bruce agreed with the action.

6. I called [ ] and told him not to alert the [ ] office, to send on the $50 and to tell Fred to get himself a job. I also advised Bill to dole out the dough in $50 sums as needed, but under no circumstances more than $50 per week. Bill agreed.
